A mole of hydrogen gas

On the 2nd day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Two helices of deoxyribonucleic acid

On the 3rd day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Three subatomic particles

On the 4th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Four states of matter

On the 5th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Five benzene rings

On the 6th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Six bottles of ethanol

On the 7th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Seven carbon allotropes

On the 8th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Eight planets in the solar system

On the 9th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Nine standard minerals

On the 10th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Ten neon signs

On the 11th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Eleven types of galaxies

On the 12th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Twelve cranial nerves

On the 13th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Thirteen dimensions in the universe according to some theories

On the 14th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Fourteen Galapagos Islands

On the 15th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Fifteen microscopes

On the 16th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Sixteen species which become extinct each day

On the 17th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Seventeen Apollo missions

On the 18th day of Science-mas, Avogadro gave to me,

Eighteen molecules of dihydrogen monoxide
